Knights of Dark Renown by David Gemmell. "Lug nicked the skin at the base of his right palm and held his hand over the bird's metallic head. A single drop of blood splashed on the beak. 'Now the wings,' Ruad ordered. 'Swiftly now.' Lug followed the instructions, then stepped back. 'Press your finger over the cut and stop the bleeding.' Lug did so,...

Knights of Dark Renown by David Gemmell book review

Knights of Dark Renown is dedicated with love to Val and Mike Adams, good neighbours, good friends. And also to Ivan Kellham, Sue Blackman, and the staff at Village Video, Hastings, who put up with a quirky author serving behind the counter whenever he feels the need to run away from his word processor.

Knights of Dark Renown, by David Gemmell. But Knights of Dark Renown is a better book than Legend; it is, in its own way, a better book than a lot of fantasy. It is, as it were, better at what it is. I've rated it better, for example, than A Game of Thrones, which some may consider heresy; but I think it's merited.
