Just This Once is such a realistic love story. Of course, when I say realistic I don't mean that if you take a Vacation to New Zealand you are sure to walk away with a perfect and famous rugby player, but Drew and Hannah were such real characters and the things they go through in the book are things that struck such a chord within me.

Just This Once Escape To New Zealand 1 Rosalind James

"Just This Once", from the 'Escape to New Zealand' series by Rosalind James is a cut above (well above) most romance novels...set in New Zealand, Ms James never puts a foot wrong, not only with the NZ references, but the overall culture and 'feel' (and I am a Kiwi, so I can vouch for this first hand).

The great thing about escape rooms is that the puzzles the students need to solve in order to “win” or “escape” don’t have to be overly complicated. Close readings with questions afterward, whose answers have certain letters highlighted, will work just fine. You can also try math problems whose numbers are a lock combination.
