And today I'm doing my initial impressions of the Manga series Love Com aka Lovely Complex by Aya Nakahara. I originally read this series back in college or something, I have been meaning to reread it for the channel for a while now and it takes care of the "read a Romance manga" challenge for Manga Hoarders' reading challenge so why not.

review 1: So they are FINALLY! a couple! And everybody is happy, including their classmates... well, except Haruka, who cried like a girl. I find so funny that, when Risa and Otani are studying in his house, he becomes sort of romantic, and when he tries to kiss he, she laughs!

review 1: I have to say I got a confused with the ending of this volume. It took me much longer then I'm willing to admit but I had to do a double take before I figured out that at the end of this volume there is a one-shot done by the author about a completely unrelated story, called I'll Love You Even If I Become a Star" with a new cast of characters outside of the Love*Com world.

review 1: I rated this volume five because out of all the volumes so far throughout the manga, this one was the most touching. I don't like the conflict of Nobu and Nakao, but I believe that they'll still be crazy about each other in any situation they have to go through(as a couple).
