Adam Baker's monstrous Juggernaut is a prequel to the epic Outpost series. ZA horror at its absolute best, and Juggernaut is frantic, bloody, adrenaline gushing fun from start to finish. This whole series has confirmed to me that Adam Baker knows how to write awesome ZA goodness. One of the best series i've read.

Wanting to add more authors to my reading list I stumbled on to Adam Baker. A great fast paced read. The characters were good. The story didn't fall into the usual genre trappings. If you like this you'll love Outpost!!! That's my favourite book by Baker thus far. In a rare twist I'm actually anxious to read the third book when it comes out.

I thought I'd turn away from the classics to more modern fare in this post, specifically the advance copy of Adam Baker's Juggernaut that I recently managed to get my hands on. You may have already come across Baker's debut novel Outpost, which told a tale of humans struggling to survive as the world collapsed around them...

Book Review: Juggernaut - STARBURST Magazine

Last December I recommended OUTPOST – Adam Baker's Arctic-set thriller. Today I present the prequel: JUGGERNAUT. I'm pleased to report that Adam's written another cracker here. It's the fast-paced, sun-scorched story of the genesis of the disease which has destroyed the world in Outpost, all set against the beautifully rendered...
