Rhyn's powers were beyond even Gabriel to control, and the unfortunate immortal was a loose cannon that'd accidentally almost destroyed the world more times than Gabriel could count. Gabriel's lover and master, the deity Death, materialized beside him at the Oracle's altar in the center of an ancient fortress in the Sanctuary.

"I know," he said, and turned the page in the book to continue watching Rhyn. Death took her human form out of respect for the women of the convent-like Sanctuary that housed the Oracle. She was beautiful, a woman of sunshine, smiles, and eyes that changed from white to black and every color in between.
