Love at First Flight by Marie Force. 3.8 of 5 stars. (Paperback 9781402220067) ... Line of Scrimmage, so I picked this up in hopes that I'd love it just as much. I thought the book was really good, until the last chapter or two kind of ruined it for me. It just wasn't all that believable. Wish she would have wrapped it up differently.

What would have made Love at First Flight better? Don't know, the storyline just didn't grab my attention. Became very predictable and the characters were kind of bland. What does Tanya Eby bring to the story that you wouldn't experience if you just read the book? She's not a bad narrator, but even she couldn't bring the story to life for me.

Love At First Flight (2009) About book: I was disappointed with this book after reading the Fatal Series. I was expecting so much more because I just loved that series so much. But oh well. It wasn't a bad book, I just didn't connect with Julianna, and her going back and forth on who to be with drove me crazy.
