Joss Whedon: The Biography Amy Pascale Chicago Review Press Incorporated Release Date: August 1, 2014 ISBN 978-1-61374-104-7. It seems a little strange that a biography is released for a personality who is not only relatively young, but who also is at the top of his game.

LitStack Review: Joss Whedon: The Biography by Amy Pascale

review 1: I am in awe of people like Joss Whedon - and they are few and far between. For me personally, it's all about his storytelling. To read a biography on a master storyteller is awesome because we hear all other (very prominent / famous) voices - the Nathan Fillions and the Neil Patrick Harris and the Robert Downey Jrs - speak of the wondrous Mr Whedon in harmony, which makes up for ...
