Jake Coburn starts LOVESICK with a teaser: he writes as if the characters told him their real story. Certainly the story of two addicts trying to survive in college could be true, but it is unique in that Ted is hired by Erica's father to watch her at college.

LoveSick book by Jake Coburn - ThriftBooks

LoveSick, by Jake Coburn is the tale of love, loss, and regrets. I would recommend it to people who enjoy realistic fiction and aren't afraid of tragedy. I would say it is suitable for people 13 and up, due to language.

Book Review: LoveSick by Jake Coburn | Mboten

jake coburn's new book lovesick was an original story. i love the way he takes an idea or situation and brings it to our attention when we would have never thought about it in the first place. as in his first novel prep which i absolutely fell in love with. you kind of see them as underground, hidden stories that most look past.
