Jobs Body A Handbook For Bodywork Deane Juhan

Job's Body is a classic for a reason. Juhan's clear, yet imaginative prose helps to make sense of some of the most complex and minute chemical reactions of the body. Though pain science has evolved past some of the arguments he makes in this book, Juhan's systemic view of connective tissue's importance in the body was ahead of its time, and ...

Sure there are issues I had with it. For a book that purports to use science to understand the power of touch, there are far too many conclusions that are not backed up. It is often confusing where exactly Juhan derives his information. But as a catalyst, and a poetic one, Job's Body works beautifully in 2011.
