Book Review | 'Love in Infant Monkeys: Stories,' by Lydia ...

Lydia Millet's first story collection, Love in Infant Monkeys, is an easy read but by no means a simplistic one. The stories, most of which are under twenty pages, grip from the first page, largely due to Millet's understanding and convincing use of voice—she channels characters ranging from a pop star to a dog walker, a scientist to a simple everyday husband—but also because of the ...
