Living a Simple Life We spent a good part of our married life chasing that old mighty dollar, spending more than we made, and being in debt to the hilt. We were depressed, unhappy and had wandered so far from our roots that we knew something had to change!

10 Living a Simple Life Choices We Made

Living a Simple Life. It's about saying no to everything that gets in the way, but saying yes to what's right for you. It means having more of some things: more time, more energy, more space, more flex in your budget, more peace of mind. It means having less of others: less distractions, less frustration, less clutter, less drain on your resources.
