Kissing Kate — Lauren Myracle

Lauren Myracle gave Lissa an authentic voice as narrator. I felt like a teen was telling me her story. Many of the minor characters were unique and interesting. KISSING KATE doesn't end with a perfect resolution for all of the characters, which feels more realistic than if it had. THEMES: friendship, LGBT, high school, siblings, family

Dear Kissing Kate, Why did you do that to me? You gave me an interesting premise, decent main characters, and pretty good chemistry between the main couple (something I find majorly lacking in most YA books, especially YA LGBT), but you failed in one of the most important areas -- your subplots sucked ass.
