Beautiful, raw and honest, Jamie Blair's Leap of Faith was a stunning debut that had me latched onto its pages wanting for the main character to have the happily ever after she deserved. If only the reader had some kind of closure at the end of the book, this would have been a solid 5 stars read for me.

review 1: For me, Leap of Faith is a very inspiring book. Words are not sufficient to express what I've felt while reading the story and it moved me to different aspects. Faith/Leah grabbed a big responsibility into taking care of her sister whom she treated like a daughter.
