Lucas by Kevin Brooks was a very good read. Though, I imagine, being a male writing from a teen girls perspective must have been some difficult but the book was amazing. Well thought out and organized. It was an amazing experience reading this book, you (I felt) feel every emotion Cait felt, which is a good thing!

Lucas by Kevin Brooks, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Lucas is everything Caitlin longs to be: Brave. Honest. Free. But Lucas is everything other people fear. It was my dad's idea to write about Lucas and Angel and everything else that happened last summer. "It won't make you feel any better," he told me, "it might even make things worse for a while.

Lucas by Kevin Brooks: readPUSH - thisispush.com

Lucas has no last name, no history, no friends, and no family --- but he is gentle and thoughtful, and Caitlin knows she can trust him. Not everyone on the island is as open-minded, however, and when Lucas is accused of a terrible crime, Caitlin is thrown into a kind of witch-hunt that will leave her changed forever.

Lucas, by Kevin Brooks, will always be the best piece of literature I have ever read. Lucas is about a girl who shares a deep connection with a wanderer. Even though her whole town is turned against him, she opens her heart and lets him in. Lucas never created any reason for the town to turn against him. He is simply different.

Adèle Geras on Kevin Brooks's Lucas, a novel that will appeal to readers as well as prize-giving juries

Review: Lucas by Kevin Brooks | Books | The Guardian

I've read a few other books by Kevin Brooks and I'm quickly becoming a huge fan of his! If I'm honest, I had no idea what the story was about before I picked it up. Kevin Brooks is a name that I trust and will most likely read his entire backlist. But I was a little nervous about reading Lucas as so many people rave about it.
