About Life Is Short But Wide. While carving out a home for themselves, they also allow neighbors Bertha and Joseph to build a house and live on their land. The next generation brings two girls for Irene and Val, and a daughter for Bertha and Joseph. As the families cope with changing times and fortunes, and people are born and pass away,...

Life Is Short But Wide by J. California Cooper ...

Life is Short but Wide is a gem of a book. Cooper is a fantastic storyteller and shows her strength here through the voice of Mrs. Hattie B. Brown. Hattie is ninety-one years old and she draws you in to the story just like a great, great aunt inviting you to sit down at the kitchen table to hear what she has to say.

Life Is Short but Wide by J. California Cooper, Paperback ...

This multigenerational saga about African-Americans in a small Oklahoma town covers a large chunk of the 20th century. The novel's 91-year-old narrator, who plays no active role and has no viable reason to know the intimate details of the characters' stories, allows Cooper (Wild Stars Seeing Midnight Suns, 2006, etc.) to adopt a folksy, sometimes preachy tone—with a decided sympathy for ...

Life is Short But Wide book by J. California Cooper

I have 3 mantras: less is more; you must start the way you want to finish; and, life is short but wide. As many of you know, I'm a planner. I've had my funeral folder since I was 19. Even with my good genes (my 98 year old father is still alive and kickin'), I know that, in the scheme of things, life is short.
