CELTA tip: language analysis assignment. It's worth getting in the habit of using these as you need them often when you're teaching. Don't worry, I'm still bad at thinking of them on the spot, and I've been teaching 5 years! 'highlighting the form' might include giving collocations – words that commonly go alongside the target language. E.g.

CELTA tip: language analysis assignment | ELT Planning

In my experience of training language teachers, mostly on CELTA courses, I have noticed that good preparation goes a long way. Analysing language for teaching purposes is a huge part of that preparation. Candidates following teacher training courses find language analysis demanding and tiresome though we believe it is essential to bear in mind that it...
