review 1: I really liked this book. There isn't any Fantasy in it, which is what I usually look for to read, but it was enjoyable. It was a bit difficult figuring out what time period the story takes place in, but it's easier if you just ignore that.

Knightley Academy by Violet Haberdasher - booksamillion.com

Knightley Academy review 1: This is your typical "young boys go to school together in a rather medieval setting and learn stuff" kind of book. There are some interesting political dynamics (should commoners be educated, should women be educated, etc.) and also a fair bit of intrigue, which is nice.
