Official Website of Cristina Garcia. Reviews. NPR Review. New York Times Review. Washington Post Review "There's more than one way to face one's final years: with a sense of grace and peace, or with buoyant denial, an active sex life, and plenty of fight, like the two combative octogenarians in Cristina García's darkly hilarious new novel, King of Cuba (Scribner).

King Of Cuba - Books - Cristina García: Official Author ...

This is an excellent read. The story follows the lives of The Tyrant (guess who?) and an expat from Cuba. It intertwines their lives through the crisis and resolution. Not only is it a well-constructed novel but it is chock full of cubanisms, some Latin phrases and memorable quotes.
