Chaos Quotes. It is the night sea journey, the lone fisherman on a tropical sea with his nets, and you let these nets down - sometimes, something tears through them that leaves them in shreds and you just row for shore, and put your head under your bed and pray. At other times what slips through are the minutiae,...

Chaos. The utter confusion left in its wake caused me to stop and reevaluate many of my assumptions about myself and life. What made this period even more difficult to endure was a sense of abandonment by some whom I thought would always be there, yet perhaps through a sense of helplessness or their own fears could not.

Life in Chaos is a beautiful, sweet story and more importantly, one full of hope and the beauty and power of love. A lovely, poignant read which can be revisited time and time again just to put a gentle smile on your face. Original: I enjoyed this book a lot, and liked that it didn't turn into a major angst-fest.
