My review--If you're looking for an adrenaline-spiking thriller, you don't need to look any further.Love Gone Mad by Mark Rubinstein will fit your bill. I breezed my way through its streamlined plot, archetypal characters and primal emotions: a shifting third person POV in the present tense narrative style isn't exactly my comfort zone when it comes to reading, but once I got used to it I was ...

Mark Rubinstein's Love Gone Mad is a suspense laden psychological thriller. Adrian Douglas and Megan Haggarty's burgeoning romance takes an ominous turn when a stalker sets his sights on the couple. Adrian and Megan are likable characters, but they are somewhat underdeveloped. Their romance is rushed and a little too perfect.
