Jericho's Fall by Stephen L. Carter; Kirsten Potter

I've read all of Mr. Carter's fiction and feel his writing has improved immensely. It is much tighter, having necessary detail, but not much more. I felt I knew his main characters without extra information about them. I was wanting a novel that would 'hook' me and this one did. I was not 100% certain who was a culprit and who wasn't until the ...
