Last days teaching seemed to need a special code that only certain people could understand. As I read through, "Last Days Madness", I began to understand why. Unfortunately, church history is not taught so I would imagine that most "Left Behind" followers know nothing of the fall of Jerusalem and how Christians in AD 70 escaped because of Jesus ...

Heed the simple time statements. This is the heart of DeMar's book. If you assume that the wide variety of eschatological timing indicators found in the New Testament should all be understood to be REALLY referring to "the next event on the prophetic calendar, which can happen at any moment (ever since the mid 1st century), although it may not actually happen for a very, very long time (even ...
