"This is Love," is Carolyn Riker's second, full-length book of poetry and prose. There are three sections where she conveys the art of self-love, how love is everywhere, and the invariable highs and lows of relationships. She writes about love from a field of colors as seen from her soul; it's not all pretty.

Carolyn's book is the story of Everyman, the lives, loves, joys, and sorrows of each human soul. What makes Carolyn's book exceptional is how she weaves throughout her story her Faith in a God who supports and strengthens her and, at times, props her up. Carolyn's book is a lesson in trust in God as we see her close to giving up.
